§1102.5

AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff PAUL SOMERS ("Plaintiff"), for causes of action against defendants DIGITAL REALTY TRUST, INC., ELLEN JACOBS, and Does One through Ten, inclusive, alleges in this Complaint for Damages ("Complaint") as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff, a citizen of the United States of America, is and at all relevant times to this litigation has been a resident of the Country of Singapore.

1           2.       Defendant Digital Realty Trust Inc. (“Defendant Digital”) is a corporation
2 incorporated in the State of Maryland with its principal place of business in San Francisco,
3 California.

4           3.       Defendant Ellen Jacobs (“Defendant Jacobs”) is a n individual conducting
5 business in San Francisco, California

6           4.       Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued in this
7 litigation as Does One through Ten, inclusive and, as a result, sues these defendants by these 8 fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of 9 these defendants once they have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 10 thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants is in some manner responsible 11 for the injuries and damages to Plaintiff alleged in this litigation.

12          5.       Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that at all times relevant 13 to this litigation, defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of their 14 codefendants, and that these defendants, in doing the things mentioned in this Complaint, were 15 acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, servants, and employees, and 16 were acting with the permission and consent of their codefendants.

17                               JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18          6.       Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations contained in
19 paragraphs 1 through 5 above, as well as facts currently unknown.

20          7.       This case arises, in part, under federal statutes including Title VII of the Civil 21 Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000C, et. seq. Therefore, this court has original 22 jurisdiction of this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

23          8.       Jurisdiction over the defendants, and each of them, exists because each of the 24 defendant entities named in this litigation are present and operating within the jurisdictional
25 limits of the County of San Francisco and the judicial jurisdiction of this Court, and each of the 26 individual defendants named in this litigation are employed within the jurisdictional limits of the 27 County of San Francisco and the judicial jurisdiction of this Court.

1 feet; Defendant Digital invested nearly $850 million dollars new buildings and driven in large
2 part by Plaintiff's efforts.

3 17. On numerous occasions, Kumar praised Plaintiff's performance and said Plaintiff
4 would be well rewarded when APAC was spun-off in an imminent public offering and when 5 Defendant Digital started investing in a new separate company to invest in emerging properties.

6 18. Throughout his career with Defendant Digital, Plaintiff established a consistently
7 superlative record of achievement.

8 19. Upon the hiring of Grant Yabsley as VP Sales in late 2012, Plaintiff noticed a 9 distinctly homophobic and discriminatory attitude on the part of Kumar.

10 20. Yabsley is single and heterosexual, with no prior data center experience.
11 Nevertheless, Kumar began siphoning of Plaintiff's responsibilities and delegating them to 12 Yabsley and Amandine Wang, another heterosexual new hire with no prior data center
13 experience.

14 21. Kumar also began openly antagonizing Plaintiff, and actively sought to isolate
15 him from public events. Kumar stopped asking Plaintiff to attend outside customer events,
16 conferences and data center grand openings because he did not believe that Plaintiff's
17 homosexuality would be publicly accepted. By contrast, Kumar brought Yabsley, his new
18 inexperienced heterosexual employee, to such events while Plaintiff was not even permitted
19 (though required by company policy) to be involved in or view customer proposals that went out
20 to clients, as he always had done before. At internal senior-level meetings Kumar took great
21 pains to belittle Plaintiff's role in the organization in an effort to render him obsolete. Kumar
22 further undertook a campaign to discredit Plaintiff in the eyes of Defendant Digital, even forcing 23 Plaintiff and his team to engage in a humiliating, three hour "brainstorming session" to justify 24 their purpose in the region.

25 22. Shortly before Plaintiff's wrongful termination by Defendant Digital, Plaintiff
26 made complaints to senior management regarding actions by Kumar which eliminated internal 27 controls over certain corporate actions in violation of Sarbanes Oxley.

1           23.     Shortly before Plaintiff's wrongful termination by Defendant Digital, Plaintiff
2 made complaints to senior management regarding actions by Kumar which were discriminatory
3 and in violation of anti-discrimination laws.

4           24.     Despite his record of superior achievement, on April 9, 2014, Plaintiff was 5 summarily terminated based on vague, trivial, and false allegations of misconduct, including 6 allegations that he secretly steered a small video contract to a vendor that employed his brother
7 (who was not an owner) and failing to disclose the relationship - a fact that had been widely
8 disclosed by Plaintiff, though not required.

9           25.     Plaintiff was terminated within 36 hours of being advised of an investigation into 10 the false allegations described above, without being formally interviewed or being provided an 11 opportunity to tell his side of the story.

12           26.     Defendant Digital's Code of Conduct, explicitly states that: "An employee
13 accused of violating this Code will be given an opportunity to present his or her version of the 14 events at issue prior to any determination of appropriate discipline."

15           27.     During his tenure with Defendants, Plaintiff made numerous firsthand
16 observations of serious misconduct by heterosexual males. One example Plaintiff reported to 17 Human Resources involved an employee who owned and ran a chain of yogurt shops on 18 company time. In fact Mr. Kumar admitted to having proof of this Code of Conduct violation
19 but refused to take action or report the matter, also a violation of the Code of Conduct. Another 20 example involved no-bid contracts given by Mr. Kumar to friend long-time friends and 21 unsubstantiated payments to others in his hometown of Sydney, Australia. Another example
22 involved the hiding of seven million dollars in cost overruns on a development in Hong Kong
23 and a lack of transparency on a new project in Osaka, Japan

24           28.     Not one of the foregoing matters resulted in discipline of the employee and, in 25 one case, the employee was actually promoted after revealing his costly errors.

26           29.     Plaintiff was therefore a victim of disparate treatment because of his failure to 27 conform to a male sex-stereotype.
28

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
FOR DISPARATE TREATMENT IN VIOLATION OF
TITLE VII OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT
INCLUDING RETALIATION
(Against Defendant Digital and Does One through Ten)

30. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 29 above, as well as facts currently unknown.

31. Plaintiff is a gay man.

32. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act prohibiting termination of an employee from employment on the basis of gender, which includes sexual orientation. Title VII of the Civil Rights Act prohibits, among other things, discrimination based on gender, including sexual orientation or non-conformance with sex-stereotypes.

33. Defendant Digital violated Title VII of the Civil Rights Act because Plaintiff, as a gay man suffered an adverse employment action as a result of sex stereotyping, i.e., a failure to conform to a male sex-stereotype, experienced hostile, intimidating and embarrassing conduct from others including his superior Kumar and Ellen Jacobs, Vice President of Human Resources and Corporate Services (IT).. For example:

a.) At a customer event in Singapore, Kumar forced Plaintiff and Adil Atlassey, Vice President of Technology, to accompany him to a well-known brothel and strip club in Singapore known as the “Four Floors of Whores”, knowing that Plaintiff, a gay man, would be especially uncomfortable in that setting;

b.) Jacobs unreasonably blocked Plaintiff from rejoining his partner by disallowing his move to London from Dublin where his partner would have been granted a visa by right;

c.) Despite being the second highest ranking executive in the region, Plaintiff was not invited by Kumar to the openings of data centers and other customer functions. ;

d.) Kumar acted contrary to Digital’s policies to remove Plaintiff from important job functions and shifted duties to Grant Yabsley and Amandine Wang . Both Yabsley and Wang were new, lower ranking heterosexual company officers with no data center experience

1 e) Kumar also began openly antagonizing Plaintiff, and actively sought to isolate him
2 from public events. Kumar stopped asking Plaintiff to attend outside customer events,
3 conferences and data center grand openings because he did not believe that Plaintiff's
4 homosexuality would be publicly accepted. By contrast, Kumar brought Yabsley, his new
5 inexperienced heterosexual employee, to such events while Plaintiff was not even permitted
6 (though required by company policy) to be involved in or view customer proposals that went out
7 to clients, as he always had done before.

8 f) At internal senior-level meetings Kumar took great pains to belittle Plaintiff' role in the 9 organization in an effort to render him obsolete. Kumar further undertook a campaign to 10 discredit Plaintiff in the eyes of Defendant Digital, even forcing Plaintiff and his team to engage 11 in a humiliating, three hour "brainstorming session" to justify their purpose in the region.

12 g) Defendant Digital terminated Plaintiff for pretextual reasons.

13 34. Plaintiff filed a charge of discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity 14 Commission. On or around August 27, 2014, Plaintiff received a Notice of Right To Sue.

15 35. At all times mentioned in this complaint Plaintiff was fully qualified for Plaintiff's 16 position.

17 36. Defendant discriminated against Plaintiff because of Plaintiff's sexual orientation in 18 that he was treated differently than straight persons.

19 37. Plaintiff believes and alleges that Plaintiff's sexual orientation was a substantial and 20 determining factor in defendant employer's decision to terminate Plaintiff.

21 38. Defendant's termination and other adverse employment actions towards Plaintiff as 22 alleged in this complaint constitute an unlawful employment practice in violation of Title VII of 23 the Civil Rights Act.

24 39. Further, pursuant to 42 USC § 2000e-3(a), Defendant was precluded from 25 retaliating against and/or terminating Plaintiff "because the person has opposed any practices
26 forbidden under this part or because the person has filed a complaint, testified, or assisted in any 27 proceeding under this part." In response to Plaintiff's complaints, Defendant and its agents have 28 retaliated against and refused to gainfully employ Plaintiff, to Plaintiff's detriment.

40. As a direct, foreseeable, and proximate result of defendants' discriminatory acts, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial losses in earnings and job benefits, and has suffered and continues to suffer humiliation, embarrassment, mental and emotional distress, and discomfort, all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount in excess of $1,000,000 plus benefits and stock options, the precise amount of which will be proven at trial.

41. Because the acts taken toward Plaintiff were carried out by, condoned by and or ratified by managerial employees or managing agents acting in a deliberate, cold, callous, fraudulent, malicious, oppressive, and intentional manner in order to injure and damage Plaintiff, Plaintiff requests the assessment of punitive damages against Defendant in an amount appropriate to punish and make an example of Defendant.

42. Plaintiff has incurred and continues to incur legal expenses and attorney fees. Plaintiff is presently unaware of the precise amount of these expenses and fees and prays leave of court to amend this complaint when the amounts are more fully known.

43. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
FOR WHISTLEBLOWER RETALIATION
18 U.S.C. § 1514A(a)(1); 15 U.S.C. § 78u-6(h)

(Against Defendant Digital and Does One through Ten)

44. Plaintiff repeats and realleges para. 1 through 29, and incorporates them by reference as though fully reproduced in this cause of action.

45. At all relevant time periods, Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant Digital.

46. Plaintiff complained to Defendant Digital's officers, directors, and/or managing agents that certain of Kumar's activities violated requirements for internal controls established by of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

47. Defendant's termination of Plaintiff was in violation of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 which makes it illegal to fire or otherwise discriminate against an employee for providing information of a violation of a rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission or any provision of federal law relating to fraud against shareholders, 18 U.S.C. § 1514A(a)(1), including when the

1 employee provides information or assistance to someone with “supervisory authority over the
2 employee” or with authority to “investigate, discover, or terminate misconduct” as Plaintiff did.

3 48. The Dodd-Frank Act protects all covered employees from retaliation for ... (c)
4 “making disclosures that are required or protected under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002,” the 5 Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or “any other law, rule, or regulation subject to the jurisdiction
6 of the [SEC].” 15 U.S.C. § 78u-6(h).

7 49. The Dodd-Frank anti-retaliation provision, 15 U.S.C. § 78u-6(h)(1)(A), provides 8 that “[n]o employer may discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass, directly or indirectly, or in 9 any other manner discriminate against, a whistleblower in the terms and conditions of 10 employment because of any lawful act done by the whistleblower.”

11 50. On April 9, 2014, Defendant Digital terminated Plaintiff, substantially motivated
12 by the complaints detailed above.

13 51. As a legal and proximate result of Defendants’ actions, Plaintiff has suffered
14 special and general damages in an amount to be proven, but in excess of $1,000,000 plus benefits
15 and stock options. In addition, Plaintiff is entitled to two times the amount of back pay 16 otherwise owed with interest; and (iii) compensation for litigation costs, expert witness fees, and 17 reasonable attorneys’ fees.

18 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

19 WRONGFUL TERMINATION IN VIOLATION OF PUBLIC POLICY

20 (Against Defendant Digital and Does One through Ten)

21 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations contained in
22 paragraphs 1 through 51 above, as well as facts currently unknown.

23 53. Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff’s termination was wrongful because it was in 24 violation of the public policy of the United States in that Plaintiff’s termination was in retaliation
25 for Plaintiff’s opposing and reporting illegal activity, as described in preceding allegations.

26 54. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant’s termination of Plaintiff was in violation
27 of The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 which makes it illegal to fire or otherwise discriminate
28 against an employee for providing information of a violation of a rule of the Securities and

1 Exchange Commission or any provision of federal law relating to fraud against shareholders. 18
 2 U.S.C. § 1514A(a)(1), including when the employee provides information or assistance to
 3 someone with “supervisory authority over the employee” or with authority to “investigate,
 4 discover, or terminate misconduct” as Plaintiff did.

5 55. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant’s termination of Plaintiff was in violation
 6 of the public policy as expressed in Title VII of the Civil Rights Act prohibiting termination of 7 an employee from employment on the basis of gender.

8 56. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant’s termination of Plaintiff was in violation
 9 of the public policy as expressed in Cal. Labor Code §1102.5 prohibiting retaliation for reporting
 10 violations or potential violations of violation of a state or federal law or regulation or local, state,
 11 or federal rule or regulation

12 57. As a direct, foreseeable, and proximate result of defendant’s wrongful termination 13 of Plaintiff in violation of the public policy of the State of California, Plaintiff has lost and will 14 continue to lose income and benefits, and has suffered and continues to suffer humiliation,
 15 embarrassment, mental and emotional distress, and discomfort all to Plaintiff’s damage, in excess 16 of $1,000,000 plus benefits and stock options, the precise amount of which will be proven at 17 trial.

18 58. Because the acts taken toward Plaintiff were carried out by, condoned by and or 19 ratified by managerial employees or managing agents acting in a deliberate, cold, callous,
 20 malicious, oppressive, and intentional manner in order to injure and damage Plaintiff, Plaintiff
 21 requests the assessment of punitive damages against Defendant in an amount appropriate to 22 punish and make an example of Defendant.

23 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 BREACH OF CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

25 (Against Defendant Digital and Does One through Fifty)

26 59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations contained in
 27 paragraphs 1 through 29 above, as well as facts currently unknown.

28 60. Plaintiff was employed with Defendant under a contract that was partly written

1 and partly implied.

2 61. The terms of the contract relied on by Plaintiff included but were not limited to:

3 1. Personnel policies which provided that:

4 i. If an employee was performing unsatisfactorily the employee would be
5 disciplined in accordance with defendant employer's progressive
6 disciplinary steps;

7 ii. Employees would be treated fairly and in accordance with applicable
8 employment laws;

9 iii. Plaintiff had a contract of employment for so long as Plaintiff performed
10 Plaintiff's job in a satisfactory manner, and demotion or discharge could 11 only be for good cause proven and then would be carried out only in 12 accordance with the stated written policies of Defendant.

13 iv. Defendant would pay appropriate Cost of Living Allowances for residence
14 in more expensive cities.

15 v. Defendant would arrange and pay for all activities related to repatriation to 16 the United States after termination of employment.

17 62. Defendant breached its contract with Plaintiff by:

18 i. Refusing to give Plaintiff the opportunity to succeed at Plaintiff's job;

19 ii. Failing to treat Plaintiff in accordance with Defendant's stated policies;

20 iii. Terminating Plaintiff in breach of the promises made to Plaintiff;

21 iv. Terminating Plaintiff without following Defendant employer's policies and 22 practices

23 v. Terminating Plaintiff without good cause;

24 vi. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff's expenses upon termination;

25 vii. Failing to pay appropriate Cost of Living Allowances for residence in 26 Dublin and Singapore;

27 viii. Failing to recognize the validity of Plaintiff's relationship with partner by 28 paying Cost of Living Allowances for residence in Dublin and Singapore at similar rates to single employees in region.

ix. Failing to properly address financial and legal issues created by Defendant

Digital's wrongful termination, including:

- a. allowing the IRS to seize Plaintiff's bank account;
- b. refusal to pay travel expenses owed to Plaintiff;
- c. failing to pay state unemployment insurance and file wages reports for 46 consecutive months and for failing to register Plaintiff as a new hire in the first 20 days of employment with the Illinois Department of Employment Security;
- d. refusing to assume lease obligation payments and cost monthly maintenance of expat apartment;
- e. failing to file submittals to Singapore 's tax authority resulting in Plaintiff's being stranded in Singapore for 90 days .
- f. failing to acknowledge Singapore tax and custom laws by demanding Plaintiff risk crossing immigration and customs checkpoint prior to receiving proper legal clearance.
- g. failing to provide information necessary for Plaintiff to file his taxes in a timely and correct manner.
- h. failing to allow Defendant Digital's tax advisor to assist Plaintiff in filing his taxes in a timely and correct manner.
- i. failing to pay its share of taxes owed for the tax year 2014.

63. Defendant has refused and continues to refuse to allow Plaintiff the benefits of the employment contract and to perform under this contract in the agreed on manner.

64. As a direct, foreseeable, and proximate result of Defendant's breach, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial losses in earnings, bonuses, and job benefits, and expenses incurred in the search for comparable employment in an amount not less than $1,000,000 plus the value of benefits and stock options, the precise amount of which will be proven at trial

65. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant and Does One through Fifty, and each of them, as set forth in this Complaint.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

DEFAMATION

(Against Defendant Digital, Ellen Jacobs, and Does One through Ten)

66. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 29 above, as well as facts currently unknown.

67. Plaintiff complains against Defendant Digital, Jacobs, and Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and realleges all the allegations contained in the complaint, and incorporates them by reference into this cause of action as though fully set forth herein.

68. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants, and each of them, by the herein-described acts, conspired to, and in fact, did negligently, recklessly, and intentionally caused excessive and unsolicited internal and external publications of defamation, of and concerning Plaintiff, to third persons and to the community. These false and defamatory statements included express and implied: accusations that Plaintiff violated company policies, that he was a poor performer, that he was violating Singapore law by “squatting”, and that he was violating immigration laws. These and other similar false statements expressly and impliedly stated that Plaintiff was a poor performer.

69. While the precise dates of these publications are not known to Plaintiff, he believes the publications may have started in March 2014, for the improper purpose of retaliating against him and were later published and foreseeably republished to first cause, and then justify, Plaintiff’s wrongful and illegal termination. These publications were outrageous, negligent, reckless, intentional, and maliciously published and republished by Defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the negligent, reckless, and intentional publications by Defendants, and each of them, were and continue to be, foreseeably published and republished by Defendants, their agents and employees, recipients, in the community. Plaintiff hereby seeks damages for these publications and all foreseeable republications discovered up to the time of trial.

1 as opinion. Plaintiff is informed and believes this defamation will continue to be negligently,
2 recklessly, and intentionally published and foreseeably republished by Defendants, and each of 3 them, and foreseeably republished by recipients of Defendants' publications, thereby causing
4 additional injury and damages for which Plaintiff seeks redress by this action.

5 76. Each of these false defamatory per se publications (as set forth above) were 6 negligently, recklessly, and intentionally published in a manner equaling malice and abuse of any 7 alleged conditional privilege (which Plaintiff denies existed), since the publications, and each of 8 them, were made with hatred, ill will, and an intent to vex, harass, annoy, and injure Plaintiff in 9 order to justify the illegal and cruel actions of Defendants, and each of them, to cause further
10 damage to Plaintiff's professional and personal reputation, to cause him to be fired, to justify his 11 firing, and to retaliate against Plaintiff.

12 77. Each of these publications by Defendants, and each of them, were made with 13 knowledge that no investigation supported the unsubstantiated and obviously false statements.
14 The Defendants, published these statements knowing them to be false, unsubstantiated by any 15 reasonable investigation and the product of hostile witnesses. These acts of publication were 16 known by Defendants, and each of them, to be negligent to such a degree as to be reckless. In 17 fact, not only did Defendants, and each of them, have no reasonable basis to believe these 18 statements, but they also had no belief in the truth of these statements, and in fact knew the 19 statements to be false. Defendants, and each of them, excessively, negligently, and recklessly 20 published these statements to individuals with no need to know, and who made no inquiry, and 21 who had a mere general or idle curiosity of this information.

22 78. The above complained-of publications by Defendants, and each of them, were 23 made with hatred and ill will towards Plaintiff and the design and intent to injure Plaintiff, 24 Plaintiff's good name, his reputation, employment and employability. Defendants, and each of 25 them, published these statements, not with an intent to protect any interest intended to be
26 protected by any privilege, but with negligence, recklessness and/or an intent to injure Plaintiff
27 and destroy his reputation. Therefore, no privilege existed to protect any of the Defendants from 28 liability for any of these aforementioned publications or republications.

79. As a proximate result of the publication and republication of these defamatory statements by Defendants, and each of them, Plaintiff has suffered injury to him personal, business and professional reputation including suffering embarrassment, humiliation, severe emotional distress, shunning, anguish, fear, loss of employment, and employability, and significant economic loss in the form of lost wages and future earnings, all to Plaintiff's economic, emotional, and general damage in an amount according to proof.

80. Defendants, and each of them, committed the acts alleged herein recklessly, maliciously, fraudulently, and oppressively, with the wrongful intention of injuring Plaintiff, for an improper and evil motive amounting to malice (as described above), and which abused and/or prevented the existence of any conditional privilege, which in fact did not exist, and with a reckless and conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. All actions of Defendants, and each of them, their agents and employees, herein alleged were known, ratified and approved by the Defendants, and each of them. Plaintiff thus is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary damages from Defendants, and each of them, for these wanton, obnoxious, and despicable acts in an amount based on the wealth and ability to pay according to proof at time of trial.

81. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WHISTLEBLOWER RETALIATION
Ca. Lab. Code §1102.5(b), (c)
 (Against Defendant Digital)

82. Plaintiff repeats and realleges para. 1 through 81, and incorporates them by reference as though fully reproduced in this cause of action.

83. At all relevant time periods, Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant Digital.

84. As described above, Plaintiff complained to a person, employed by Defendant Digital, with authority over him or another employee who had the authority to investigate, discover, or correct the violation or noncompliance, regarding illegal acts being perpetrated by Defendant Digital.

85. Defendants retaliated against Plaintiff by manufacturing a reason to terminate him

1 and terminating him, among other retaliatory acts, substantially motivated by his complaints
2 detailed above.

3 86. In the alternative, Defendant Digital terminated Plaintiff because it believed that 4 Plaintiff disclosed or might disclose illegal acts being perpetrated by Defendant Digital.

5 87. As a legal and proximate result of Defendant's actions, Plaintiff has suffered
6 special and general damages in an amount to be proven, but in excess of $500,000.

7 PRAYER

8 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as 9 follows:

10 1. For monetary damages against Defendants, and each of them, in an amount
11 sufficient to compensate Plaintiff for loss of income, loss of benefits, loss of use, for emotional 12 distress, and for the injury and damage that Defendants have caused to Plaintiff's name and 13 reputation;

14 2. For reinstatement with back pay and back benefits for all violations of Cal. Labor
15 Code §1102.5, pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §98.6 and/or actual damages for loss of income, loss
16 of benefits, loss of use, for emotional distress, and for the injury and damage that Defendants
17 have caused to Plaintiff's name and reputation, pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §1105;

18 3. For double back pay damages for all violations of the Sarbanes Oxley Act;

19 4. For punitive damages against Defendants in an amount sufficient to deter them
20 from engaging in similar misconduct toward other employees, and to make an example of them
21 to others who may otherwise be inclined to engage in such wrongful conduct;

22 5. For costs of suit incurred herein, including Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees,
23 expert witness expenses and fees, and other costs and expenses that Plaintiff has been forced to 24 incur to prosecute this action under all applicable statutory or contractual bases;

25 6. For injunctive relief, as the Court may deem proper.
26
27
28

1           7.       For such other, further relief, as the Court may deem proper.
